Made for your gathering.

Our buffet packages are a starting point, and we’re happy to tailor your menu to suit your event.

Sandwich fillings, savoury options and dietary requirements can all be discussed when placing your order. Whether you're catering for a small team lunch, a business meeting or a larger gathering, we can suggest suitable fillings and a balanced selection of food based on your guest numbers, preferences and any specific dietary needs.

Not sure what to choose? Simply tell us how many people you're catering for and let us know about any dietary requirements. We'll be happy to recommend a selection to suit your occasion.

For events requiring delivery beyond our complimentary 10-mile radius, please get in touch to discuss your requirements.
